AT 'UM DAYS' SIGN UP FOR FALL CLASSES

MISSOULA--

A total of 235 students (54 percent) out of 434 high school seniors participating in the first "UM Days" April 4-5 at the University of Montana preregistered for fall quarter classes on the Missoula campus, Jack L. Hoover, UM director of admissions and UM Days coordinator, has announced.

Commenting on the over-all success of UM Days, Hoover said: "All evaluations point to a successful experience of enabling high school seniors to explore the University's academic and cultural life and recreational facilities. Of course, the fact that 235 seniors preregistered for fall classes during UM Days indicates that the availability of preregistration information and materials pleased many of them.

"Students from virtually every area of the state visited the Missoula campus during UM Days," Hoover said. "Communities represented by the students included towns as far away as Westby in northeastern Montana; Ashland in the southeast; Superior in the west; Eureka in the northwest, and Sunburst in north central Montana."

A total of 72 high schools were represented at UM Days.

Hoover said University officials are giving consideration to extending UM Days next year to 2 1/2 or three days because of the success of this year's program and because the high school seniors indicated they would like more time to explore University programs and facilities. Tentative dates for the 1975 UM Days are April 17-19.
